

"In Paris"

Song for "Secrets of Montmartre"

You walked into the Cafe
Each day I knew
I wanted to hold on
Our bond was more than
An open door

I don't want this mission to end
You were more than a friend
I don't want to leave town
I found my heart
From the start

In Paris
I'm here with you
I love you through it all
In Paris
I kissed you and got lost in you
I don't want this feeling to end

And you said "trust fate"
I was ready to go
You said, "You know"
Each day
I wanted to capture more
Than before
I can't turn back now

In Paris
We were falling in love
Dancing in Hotels
In Paris we were one
So it can't be undone
