

"Love is Falling"

-theme song for
"Secrets of Montmartre"

You walked into my heart
I fell for every part
From the start
I want to hold on
As you slip away
Our bond becomes grey

Love is Falling
Comes in a calling
It was enthralling
You heard him say
A feeling you can't ignore

When you walked into the street
My heart skipped a beat
No trick but a treat
I want to believe
As you say good-bye
Tears cry

Love is falling
Comes in a calling
If you knew about my bawling
You heard him say
A feeling you can't ignore

When you walked away,
Each day I say
Come back
I want to pray
As our love runs away

Love is falling
Comes in a Calling
It was Recalling
You heard him say
A feeling you can't ignore
