

"Love Falling"

-theme song for

"Secrets of Montmartre"

You walked into my heart
I fell for every part
From the start
I want to hold on
As you slip away
Our bond becomes grey

Love Falling
Comes and Goes in a calling
You heard him say
A feeling you can't ignore

When you walked into street
My heart skipped a beat
No trick but a treat
I want to believe
As you say good-bye
Tears cry

He said our love is falling
In a calling
If you knew my bawling
A feeling you can't ignore

When you walked away,
Each day I say
Come back
I want to pray
As our love runs away

Love falling
Comes and goes in a Calling
You heard him say
A feeling you can't ignore
